A DISASTROUS FIRE.

A House, Barn, Wagon House and Most of Their Contents Burned—Twenty-Two Cows Perish in the Flames.

There was a very disastrous fire on the Oliver Hulse farm, back of the State Hospital, last night.

The farm is owned by the estate of the late James C. Hulse, and has been occupied for the past year by Charles Newkirk.

The fire originated in the barn and there is no doubt whatever that it was of incendiary origin. It was discovered about 11 o'clock by Mr. Newkirk, but had progressed so far that there was no possibility of saving the building. Four horses and two wagons were removed from the building, but twenty-two cows which were stalled in a barn adjoining and connected with the main barn all perished in the flames.

A strong west wind was blowing at the time and the flames spread rapidly from the barn to the wagon house and thence to the dwelling, and in a short time all the buildings with all their contents, except the horses and wagons mentioned, were destroyed.

Mr. Newkirk's loss is very severe. He had recently made purchases of new furniture, intending to keep boarders during the summer, and if we are correctly informed had no insurance on either his furniture, hay and feed nor on his cows.

The Corwin estate is insured for $1,500 on the dwelling, $1,000 on the barn and $300 on the carriage house, all in the Germania Company, through the agency of T. L. Reeve.

The strong wind blowing from the West, at one time carried the sparks and embers to the outbuildings at the State Hospital, and they were in such danger that the employees were called out to protect them.

An attempt was made to send in an alarm from the State Hospital, but for some reason the box would not work and the alarm given was the blowing of the whistles at the Summit, which called out the neighbors, who unfortunately could do very little to prevent the destruction of property.

It is a coincidence that nearly a year ago, on a Sunday night, a barn, which was on the same site as the present one was set on fire and a number of cows perished.

A BIG IMPROVEMENT

The New Clear Store and Saloon in the Schoonmaker Building.

The improvements being made to the Schoonmaker building on James street are about completed, and they will be a surprise to many people.

The store of Frank W. Schoonmaker, the tobacconist, has been so altered that for of its old habits will recognize it, and the saloon and restaurant of Lawrence Hermann, next door, is certainly a big improvement over anything of the kind usually seen in Middletown. The woodwork is of ash and handsomely finished. There are two private rooms, and in the rear will be a restaurant where a meal or lunch may be obtained at any hour of the day.

Messrs. Julius Friedlander and Ed. Meyer will have charge of the bar and assist Mr. Hermann.

The saloon has been beautified by three handsome oil paintings by Max Muller, all life size, well executed copies of "Nature's mirror," "Psyche at the spring" and "Wine, women and song."

Canvassing for a New Directory.

The Breed Publishing Co., of Newburgh, commenced to-day, the work of compiling the Middletown directory for 1911. Mr. H. B. Breed and C. F. Darrow, representing the company, are in town superintending the work. The directory will include all the towns from Cornwall, to Delhi on the O. and W. road.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sarah J. Wickham.

Mrs. Sarah J. Wickham, widow of the late Benjamin Wickham, who died about twenty-two years ago, died very suddenly, Sunday morning, at the home of her son, William H. Wickham, on the Crane farm, at Crawford Junction.

Mrs. Wickham had suffered from heart disease for some time and Dr. Santee, of Scotchtown, had treated her for it, several months ago. She improved under his treatment and was fairly comfortable. She was in her usual health when she retired, Saturday night, and at 6 o'clock, Sunday morning, was found dead in her bed. It is thought she had been dead about five hours.

The deceased was the second wife of Mr. Wickham, and besides her son, William H., is survived by three stepsons, Reeves B., of Ridgebury; John J., of Newton, N. J., and Ira, of Jersey City.

She was a member of the Presbyterian Church for over forty years and for many years had been connected with the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city. The funeral notice appears elsewhere.

Charles S. Puff.

Charles S. Puff, mention of whose serious illness has been made in this paper, died Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Granville Stephens, 57 Sprague avenue, aged seventy-four years and twenty-seven days. The cause of death was the debility of old age. He began to fail, last fall, and both body and mind gave way, and for some time preceding his death he was almost entirely helpless.

Mr. Puff was born in the town of Dutchess, N. Y. He was a farmer and all his life was spent in Orange county, most of it on the farm in the town of Crawford, a mile and a quarter east of Bullville, which he sold a number of years ago to his son, Egbert S. He removed to this city, two years ago, making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Stephens.

Mr. Puff was married in 1811 to Jane Van Voorhees, of the town of Hamptonburgh, who died in 1835. Eight children were born to them, of whom five survive: Egbert S., of Bullville, ex-Superintendent of the Poor; John W., of Jersey City; Charles V., of this city; Sarah, wife of Granville Stephens, of this city; and Samuel N., of Deckertown. He is also survived by one brother, James Puff, of Montgomery; and by two sisters, Sarah, widow of Clark Mackey, of New York, and Lucinda, wife of Stephen Wait, of Brooklyn.

Mr. Puff was a genial, kindly man, honest and upright in all his dealings, and had a large circle of friends. He was a member of the Brick Church at Montgomery.

The funeral will be from his late residence at 10:30 o'clock, to-morrow morning. Interment in the Brick Church cemetery.

Mrs. C. Chester Bogart.

Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Martin, wife of Mr. C. Chester Bogart, died at her residence, 150 East Main street, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, aged thirty-two years.

Mrs. Bogart had been suffering from Bright's disease for three months, and had been critically ill since Monday of last week, when her mother, Mrs. J. H. Martin, of Tuscola, Ill., was telegraphed for. She reached here Saturday evening, on Erie train 8. About noon, yesterday, Mrs. Bogart gave birth to a child, a girl, and never rallied, dying as above stated.

Mr. Bogart, who is a salesman for a wholesale tea and coffee house in New York, removed to this city with his wife, a year ago, and they have since resided here, making many friends among those whom they have met. They had been married but two years, having become acquainted in Washington, where they each held government clerkships.

Mrs. Bogart was a daughter of the late J. H. Martin, a lawyer of Tuscola, Ill., who served with distinction in the civil war, and who died twenty-two years ago. She is survived by her mother, by a sister, Mary, wife of Dr. A. A. Washburn, of Tuscola, and a brother, John S. Martin, of Chicago.

Mrs. Bogart was a member of Trinity M. E. Church, Newburgh. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the body will be taken, on Erie train 5, to Tuscola, Ill., for burial. A delegation from Excelsior Hook and Ladder Co., of which Mr. Bogart is a member, acted as bearers.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN COSHEN.

A Petition to the Erie—Death of Miss Mary A. Murray—Erie and Squalor—A Plague Spot.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—A petition to the Erie asking that, when the next time table takes effect, No. 8 be stopped at this station, is in circulation and is receiving many signatures.

—Ira Ryerson has secured a position as trainer, at Mr. Chas. Backman's Stony Ford stock farm. He will have charge of about twenty horses.

—Miss Mary A. Murray died, in New York, yesterday, of pneumonia, while on a visit. She is a cousin of Mr. Geo. W. Murray. The body will be brought here for burial. The services will be held at St. James' Church, at 11:30 a. m.

—Early Saturday morning, a child, about two years old, the daughter of Edward Degroat, died, of measles. The undertaker was not notified until night. Two other children lay in the same room with the corpse, just gasping for breath, and surrounded by a crowd of colored people. The air in the small room was suffocating from so many persons being crowded into such poorly ventilated quarters. Rags and dirt lay on all sides while the stench from the horses stalled in the same building, was nearly unbearable. When the warm weather comes, this place will spread disease and death on all sides, if it is not wiped out.

—Levy, the stationer, has rented the large store in the Fletcher block. He will put in a complete line of stationery in all its branches and with his increased facilities and large stock will give the public a first class stationery store.

—The tenement house known as "Boiler Alley," on Main Street, is inhabited by both man and beast. It is occupied by several colored families, one of whom owns a horse which is kept in a part of the building directly connected with the living rooms. It might be well for the Board of Health to do its duty in this case. It is a shame that such a place should be allowed to exist on the most popular thoroughfare of the village.

Married While She Was Drugged.

John Martin, of Paterson, was held in $1,000 bail on complaint of Annie Van Dorn, who alleges that he drugged her on the evening of Sept. 5, 1892, and led her to a church where a marriage ceremony was performed. She returned to her home, where she lived with her supposed husband, Martin, for three months. At the end of that time Martin told her that he was not her husband and the certificate showed that she had been married to John Powers. Martin refused to right the wrong done the girl and she at last caused his arrest. It is supposed that a man named John Duncan was Martin's accomplice and was really married to the girl.

OLNEY'S PHARMACY,

4 EAST MAIN STREET

The old fashioned way is, make them yourself. Then your label on them means something. That's the way we do. The other way is to buy them "factory made," and slap your label on. You might as well endorse a note without seeing the face of it! For instance, when we say our Beef, Wine and Iron is as good as it is possible to make it, it's because we KNOW it is so. Why, the wine (Imported Sherry) in it alone costs more than the finished product of some other brands. The same with our Emulsion, of Cod Liver Oil. It's a true Emulsion—NOT A SOAP—and the oil is the finest obtainable and in just the condition to be readily taken by a delicate stomach. Then our Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic." We make it—make it from the actual crude drugs. We could buy something for less money, but the quality would be lacking. If we say ITS OURS, IT IS OURS with a record of 26 years to back it up.

Certainly the manufacturer has achieved the highest point of perfection in shape, finish and fit. It is made to give, as no other corset can, a gracefulness of outline to the figure through its tendency to reduce the size and give a lengthening effect to the waist.

We have them in FIVE DIFFERENT STYLES of White, Drab and Black, all made of the finest linen cloth.
